STEPHEN I. CHAZEN

Executive Vice President—Corporate Development & Chief Financial Officer, Occidental Petroleum Corporation

Stephen I. Chazen is the head of Corporate Development and the Chief Financial Officer for Occidental Petroleum in Los Angeles. He is responsible for Oxy's acquisition, divestiture, and financial activities.

Mr. Chazen received a bachelors degree in geology from Rutgers College, a masters degree in finance from the University of Houston, and a Ph.D. in geology from Michigan State. He was employed by Northrop Corporation at the Johnson Space Center as Laboratory Manager from 1973 to 1977. He worked for Columbia Gas Development Corporation as Director of Planning, Reservoir Engineering, and Project Evaluation from 1977 to 1981. From 1982 to 1994, he held various positions in the investment banking division of Merrill Lynch, where his last position was as Managing Director and Head of Corporate Finance. In 1994, he joined Occidental as Executive Vice President Corporate Development. The additional responsibilities of Chief Financial Officer were added in 1999.

The title of his talk will be "Occidental and Oil: A Westward Migration."
